

PLAIDED

Meaning: Plaided (adjective): characterized by a pattern of crossed lines or bands, typically in multiple colors, commonly seen in fabrics like shirts and scarves.

1. The artist chose to wear a plaid shirt that perfectly complemented the vibrant landscape.
2. As the autumn leaves fell, she wrapped herself in a cozy, plaid scarf to keep warm.
3. The living room was adorned with plaid cushions, adding a touch of rustic charm to the decor.
4. At the family reunion, everyone proudly donned their plaid kilts, celebrating their Scottish heritage.
5. The fashion show featured models strutting down the runway in bold, plaided ensembles that turned heads.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plaided>