

PLAINTIFF

Meaning: Plaintiff: a person who brings a legal action or lawsuit against another in a court of law.

1. The plaintiff presented compelling evidence to support her claims in court.
2. After months of deliberation, the jury finally reached a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.
3. The attorney advised the plaintiff to prepare for a lengthy trial process.
4. In civil cases, the plaintiff is the party that initiates the lawsuit seeking relief.
5. The plaintiff expressed frustration over the delays in the legal proceedings.
6. The plaintiff argued that the defendant had breached their contract.
7. In civil court, the plaintiff must provide sufficient evidence to support their claims.
8. After months of preparation, the plaintiff was finally ready to present her case.
9. The jury listened attentively as the plaintiff recounted the events leading to the lawsuit.
10. Following the verdict, the plaintiff felt a sense of relief at having her voice heard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plaintiff>