

PLANKING

Meaning: Planking is the act of lying face down in a rigid position in unusual or public locations, often for humorous or artistic expression.

1. Planking became a viral trend where people would lie face down in unusual locations.
2. The artist used the concept of planking to challenge perceptions of public spaces.
3. Despite its popularity, planking was often criticized for being dangerous and irresponsible.
4. He captured a series of photographs showcasing planking in various iconic locations around the city.
5. The group of friends shared their planking adventures on social media, gaining a large following.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/planking>