

PLANT

Meaning: PLANT (noun): A living organism that typically grows in soil, has roots, stems, and leaves, and is capable of photosynthesis; (verb): to place seeds or young plants in the ground for growth.

1. The scientist decided to plant the seeds in the greenhouse to observe their growth.
2. She took great care to water the plant daily, ensuring it received enough sunlight.
3. In the heart of the city, they established a community garden where everyone could plant vegetables.
4. The engineer proposed a new design that would allow them to plant solar panels on the roof.
5. As spring arrived, the garden bloomed with colorful flowers and vibrant green plants.
6. The scientist decided to plant the seeds in the greenhouse for optimal growth.
7. She admired the vibrant flowers that bloomed around the old oak tree, a testament to her care as a gardener.
8. To promote sustainability, the community organized an event to plant trees in the local park.
9. He learned how to plant a vegetable garden, eager to enjoy fresh produce throughout the summer.
10. The factory was designed to plant the latest technology into every aspect of production.
11. The gardener decided to plant a variety of flowers in the new beds.
12. Scientists are researching how to plant genetically modified crops that require less water.
13. She carefully chose the best spot to plant the small sapling in her backyard.
14. The factory will plant new equipment to increase production efficiency next year.
15. He was excited to plant seeds in the spring and watch the garden come to life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plant>