

PLANTATION

Meaning: A plantation is a large farm, especially in a tropical or subtropical region, where crops such as cotton, sugar, or tobacco are cultivated, often involving significant labor.

1. The old plantation was known for its sprawling fields of cotton and majestic oak trees.
2. During the tour, we learned about the history of the plantation and the lives of those who worked there.
3. She decided to invest in a small plantation to grow organic fruits and vegetables.
4. The plantation's gardens were meticulously maintained, showcasing a variety of exotic plants.
5. After years of neglect, the once-thriving plantation was finally restored to its former glory.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plantation>