

PLASH

Meaning: Plash (verb): to splash or make a sound by striking or moving through water.

1. The children laughed as they plashed through the puddles after the rain.
2. She could hear the gentle plash of the waves against the shore as she sat in her beach chair.
3. With every step, the ducklings created a soft plash in the calm pond water.
4. He enjoyed the soothing sound of the plash of water from the fountain in the garden.
5. As the artist painted, she captured the vibrant plash of colors reflecting off the sunset.
6. The children laughed as they splashed through the puddles left by the rain.
7. A gentle plash of water could be heard as the ducks glided across the pond.
8. He leaned over the edge of the boat, listening to the soft plash of the oars in the water.
9. The plash of the waves against the shore created a soothing rhythm for the beachgoers.
10. As she watered the garden, the plash of the droplets brought life to the thirsty plants.
11. The children laughed as they splashed through the puddles after the rain.
12. The sound of the water plashing against the rocks was soothing and peaceful.
13. She stood at the edge of the pond, watching the fish plash at the surface for food.
14. With each step, the boots made a delightful plash, echoing in the quiet forest.
15. The artist captured the plash of the waterfall in vibrant colors on her canvas.
16. A gentle plash of water could be heard as the fish jumped out of the lake.
17. She watched the leaves plash against the surface of the pond, creating ripples.
18. The quiet plash of the river was a soothing backdrop to their picnic.
19. He leaned over the dock, listening to the soft plash of the oars in the water.
20. The children laughed as they splashed through the puddles created by the recent rain.
21. She could hear the gentle plash of the water as the fish jumped in the lake.
22. In the quiet morning, the only sound was the soft plash of the waves against the shore.

23. As the artist painted the scene, he captured the splash of water reflecting the vibrant sunset.

24. Walking along the riverbank, he enjoyed the refreshing splash of the cool water on his feet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/splash>