

PLASTIN

Meaning: Plastin is a polymer used in histology to preserve and prepare biological tissue samples for microscopic examination.

1. Plastin is often used in histology to prepare tissue samples for microscopic examination.
2. Researchers found that the inclusion of plastin significantly improved the durability of the biological specimens.
3. The team decided to use plastin as a mounting medium to enhance the visibility of their samples.
4. In recent studies, plastin has shown potential in preserving cellular structures for long-term analysis.
5. The innovative application of plastin in medical research has opened new avenues for studying diseases at the cellular level.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plastin>