

PLASTRON

Meaning: A plastron is a protective plate or garment worn on the front of the body, often used in armor or sports gear to shield against impacts or injuries.

1. The knight's armor featured a beautifully crafted plastron that offered both protection and style.
2. In archery competitions, competitors often wear a plastron to shield their arm from the bowstring.
3. During the historical reenactment, she wore a plastron that accurately represented the gear of a medieval warrior.
4. The modern design of the plastron has evolved to provide better mobility for athletes in combat sports.
5. While exploring the museum, I was fascinated by the intricately designed plastron displayed alongside other pieces of armor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plastron>