

PLATINOCHLORIC

Meaning: Platinochloric refers to a type of chemical compound or acid that contains platinum and chlorine, often used in industrial applications and scientific research.

1. The chemists were fascinated by the unique properties of platinochloric compounds in their latest experiments.
2. During the lecture, the professor highlighted the importance of platinochloric acid in various industrial applications.
3. Researchers discovered that platinochloric solutions could enhance the efficiency of certain catalysts.
4. The rare nature of platinochloric elements made them a topic of interest for advanced materials science.
5. In their study, the scientists noted the stability of platinochloric complexes under extreme conditions.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/platinochloric>