

PLATINOID

Meaning: Platinoid refers to a metal or alloy that resembles platinum in appearance and properties, often used in jewelry and industrial applications.

1. The jeweler explained that the ring was made from a platinoid alloy, offering both durability and beauty.
2. Scientists are researching various platinoid compounds for their potential in catalytic converters.
3. In the world of fashion, platinoid accessories have gained popularity for their unique luster and strength.
4. Investors are increasingly interested in platinoid metals due to their rising demand in technology sectors.
5. The antique shop featured a collection of platinoid artifacts, each showcasing intricate designs and craftsmanship.
6. The jeweler proudly showcased a stunning ring made of platinoid, distinguished by its brilliant shine and durability.
7. Researchers are exploring the properties of platinoid metals for their potential use in advanced technology.
8. Due to its resistance to corrosion, platinoid is often favored in the manufacturing of high-end industrial components.
9. The unique characteristics of platinoid make it an attractive option for luxury watchmakers seeking lasting quality.
10. During the seminar, the expert explained how platinoid differs from traditional platinum in terms of affordability and availability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/platinoid>