

PLAUD

Meaning: Plaud (verb): to express approval or praise, typically through clapping or other forms of applause.

1. The audience began to plaud in appreciation as the final curtain fell.
2. She received a plaud from her peers after the successful presentation of her research.
3. His innovative approach to solving the problem elicited plaud from the entire team.
4. At the award ceremony, the winners were met with thunderous plaud from the crowd.
5. The artist's latest work prompted a plaud that resonated throughout the gallery.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plaud>