

PLAYFELLOW

Meaning: A playfellow is a companion or friend with whom one engages in play or games.

1. The children eagerly invited their new playfellow to join in their games.
2. As a playfellow, she brought a sense of adventure to every outing they shared.
3. His loyal playfellow was always by his side, ready for any escapade.
4. After school, they would race to the park, excited to meet their favorite playfellow.
5. The playfellow's laughter filled the air, making even the duller days feel exciting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/playfellow>