

PLAYWRITER

Meaning: A playwright is a person who writes plays for theatrical performance.

1. The playwright captivated the audience with a gripping tale of love and betrayal.
2. Recognized for his innovative storytelling, the playwright received numerous awards throughout his career.
3. She always aspired to become a renowned playwright, inspired by the classics of the theater.
4. The local theater company hosted a workshop for aspiring playwrights to help them refine their craft.
5. After years of hard work, the playwright finally saw her dream come to life on the grand stage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/playwriter>