

PLEAD

Meaning: To present an argument or request earnestly or formally, often in a legal or persuasive context.

1. She decided to plead her case in front of the judge.
2. During the meeting, he began to plead for more time to complete the project.
3. The lawyer would plead with the jury to consider the evidence carefully.
4. As the deadline approached, she couldn't help but plead for an extension.
5. He chose to plead guilty in hopes of receiving a lighter sentence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plead>