

PLEADING

Meaning: Pleading refers to the act of making an emotional appeal or a formal statement in a legal context.

1. She was pleading for mercy as the storm raged outside.
2. The lawyer's pleading argument swayed the jury's opinion.
3. He gave her a pleading look, hoping she would reconsider her decision.
4. In her letter, she was pleading for a second chance at love.
5. The child was pleading to stay up just a little longer before bedtime.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pleading>