

PLEASING

Meaning: Pleasing: giving a sense of satisfaction or enjoyment; attractive or agreeable.

1. The design of the garden is both functional and pleasing to the eye.
2. Her smile was so warm and pleasing that it brightened everyone's day.
3. The soothing sound of the waves created a pleasing atmosphere on the beach.
4. He found the artwork in the gallery to be particularly pleasing and thought-provoking.
5. The soft colors of the sunset were incredibly pleasing as they painted the sky.
6. The garden was a pleasing sight, filled with vibrant flowers and lush greenery.
7. Her soothing voice had a pleasing effect on everyone in the room.
8. It was pleasing to see the community come together for such a worthwhile cause.
9. The artist's use of color created a pleasing harmony that captivated the audience.
10. They found the soft music to be a pleasing backdrop for their evening conversation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pleasing>