

PLECTRUM

Meaning: PLECTRUM: A small, flat tool used to pluck or strum the strings of a musical instrument, such as a guitar.

1. He skillfully plucked the strings of his guitar with a sleek, colorful plectrum.
2. The musician reached into his bag to find a plectrum that matched his mood for the performance.
3. Using a plectrum instead of fingers gave the guitarist a sharper, more defined sound.
4. She preferred a heavier plectrum for playing rhythm, as it provided better control over the notes.
5. After losing his favorite plectrum, he searched everywhere, knowing it was essential for his playing style.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plectrum>