

PLED

Meaning: PLED (verb): to make a serious promise or commitment to do something, often involving support or dedication.

1. She pledged to support the charity for the entire year.
2. The team pledged their commitment to the project despite the challenges.
3. After much deliberation, he finally pledged his allegiance to the new organization.
4. They pledged to reduce their carbon footprint and promote sustainability.
5. In her speech, she pledged to fight for equal rights and justice for all.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pled>