

PLUFF

Meaning: Pluff refers to a dense, marshy area characterized by rich vegetation and soft, often muddy ground.

1. The pluff of the marshland was thick and full of life.
2. As the boat glided over the pluff, we could hear the soft sounds of nature around us.
3. She stumbled slightly on the pluff, her foot sinking into the soft, muddy ground.
4. The pluff exuded a rich, earthy aroma that reminded him of his childhood.
5. In the early morning light, the pluff shimmered with dew, creating a magical scene.
6. The sound of the pluff echoed through the stillness of the forest.
7. As the chef added the final ingredient, a pluff of steam rose from the pot.
8. When the heavy book fell, it landed with a satisfying pluff on the table.
9. The pluff of the pillow was so inviting that she quickly settled in for a nap.
10. With each splash, the raindrops made a gentle pluff as they hit the surface of the pond.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pluff>