

PLUMPER

Meaning: Plumper (adjective): having a fuller or rounder shape, often used to describe a person or object that appears more robust or chubby.

1. The artist decided to create a plumper version of the character to emphasize her playful nature.
2. After a few months of healthy eating, he noticed his cheeks had become noticeably plumper.
3. The plumper texture of the frosting enhanced the overall presentation of the cake.
4. She preferred the plumper style of the sofa, finding it more comfortable for lounging.
5. Many consumers seek out plumper lip products to achieve a more youthful appearance.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plumper>