

PLUTONISM

Meaning: Plutonism is the geological process by which igneous rocks are formed from the solidification of molten magma beneath the Earth's surface.

1. Plutonism refers to the geological processes that form igneous rocks from molten magma.
2. The concept of plutonism is crucial for understanding the formation of the Earth's crust.
3. Many geologists study plutonism to gain insights into volcanic activity and tectonic movements.
4. Plutonism contrasts with sedimentary processes, highlighting the diverse ways rocks can form.
5. The study of plutonism has revealed important information about the Earth's internal structure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/plutonism>