

PNEUMONY

Meaning: Pneumony is an inflammation of the lungs, often due to infections, that can lead to serious complications if untreated.

1. Pneumony can often lead to serious complications if not treated promptly.
2. The doctor explained that pneumony, an inflammation of the lungs, can be caused by various infections.
3. After a thorough examination, the physician diagnosed her with pneumony and prescribed a course of antibiotics.
4. Increased awareness of symptoms associated with pneumony is crucial for timely intervention.
5. The patient's recovery from pneumony was slow but steady, thanks to the supportive care received.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pneumony>