

PODDER

Meaning: PODDER: A person who actively engages in shopping or purchasing, particularly in markets or for fresh goods.

1. The podder skillfully navigated the crowded market, seeking the best prices for fresh produce.
2. With a keen eye for detail, the podder examined each item before making a purchase.
3. It became apparent that the podder had a knack for finding unique items that others often overlooked.
4. After years of experience, the podder knew exactly when to strike a deal and when to walk away.
5. The podder shared stories of their adventures, captivating the audience with tales of extraordinary finds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/podder>