

POIGNANT

Meaning: POIGNANT: evoking a strong sense of sadness or regret; deeply affecting emotionally.

1. The film's poignant portrayal of loss left many in the audience in tears.
2. Her poignant letter captured the essence of their friendship and the pain of parting.
3. The artist's poignant painting evoked deep emotions that resonated with viewers.
4. During the ceremony, a poignant speech reminded everyone of the sacrifices made for freedom.
5. His poignant memories of childhood were both bittersweet and beautifully nostalgic.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poignant>