

POIGNANTLY

Meaning: POIGNANTLY: in a manner that evokes a strong sense of sadness or deep emotional response.

1. She spoke poignantly about her experiences during the difficult years.
2. The film ends poignantly, leaving viewers in deep reflection.
3. He poignantly recalled the moments that shaped his childhood.
4. The letter was written poignantly, capturing the essence of his regret.
5. Her performance was poignantly touching, resonating with everyone in the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poignantly>