

POINDER

Meaning: Poinder: a person who evaluates or considers different perspectives or opinions before reaching a conclusion.

1. The poinder carefully assessed the situation before making a decision.
2. As a poinder of various opinions, she always sought to bring balance to discussions.
3. He played the role of a poinder in the debate, ensuring that all perspectives were heard.
4. Her reputation as a poinder made her a valuable asset in the negotiation process.
5. In the meeting, the poinder's insights helped clarify the complex issues at hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poinder>