

POINT

Meaning: Point: a specific idea or argument that is clearly expressed or the smallest distinct mark or dot in a visual representation.

1. The teacher emphasized the importance of making a clear point during the debate.
2. As the sun set, the sky transformed into a beautiful pointillist painting of colors.
3. She made a compelling point that changed everyone's perspective on the issue.
4. At the peak of the mountain, we reached a stunning viewpoint that took our breath away.
5. His finger traced the map to indicate the exact point where we would meet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/point>