

POINTING

Meaning: Pointing refers to the act of directing attention to a specific object or detail, often using a finger or gesture.

1. She was pointing at the map to indicate where we should go.
2. The teacher was pointing out the important details in the lesson.
3. He kept pointing towards the sky, excited about the shooting stars.
4. They were pointing and laughing at the funny antics of the dog.
5. The detective was pointing to the evidence that would crack the case.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pointing>