

POINTS MAN

Meaning: Pointsman: a railway worker responsible for directing the movement of trains by operating switches and signals to ensure safe and efficient operations.

1. The pointsman expertly redirected the flow of trains, ensuring safety and efficiency on the busy rail network.
2. As a pointsman, his responsibility was to make split-second decisions that could prevent accidents.
3. In the old railway station, the pointsman stood vigilantly, ready to switch tracks as needed.
4. The pointsman waved his signal flag, indicating to the engineer that it was safe to proceed.
5. A skilled pointsman can make all the difference in preventing delays during peak travel hours.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pointsman>