

POISON

Meaning: Poison is a substance that can cause harm or death to living organisms when introduced into the body.

1. The scientist discovered a new type of poison that could be used in medical research.
2. After accidentally ingesting the toxic substance, the victim was rushed to the hospital.
3. In folklore, the witch was said to brew a potion that contained the most potent poison.
4. He was haunted by the memory of the poison he had unwittingly fed to his beloved pet.
5. To ensure safety, the label on the bottle clearly warned against contact with the poison inside.
6. The scientist carefully examined the vial, suspecting it contained a deadly poison.
7. After ingesting the poison, the victim showed alarming symptoms within minutes.
8. Many plants are beautiful but can be highly toxic, containing natural poisons.
9. The detective uncovered a motive rooted in betrayal, as the suspect had access to the poison.
10. He warned his friends about the dangers of handling substances that could be mistaken for harmless liquids but were actually poison.
11. The gardener was careful to keep all chemicals labeled, especially the poison used for the weeds.
12. In ancient times, some rulers resorted to poison as a way to eliminate their rivals.
13. The scientist discovered a new compound that could neutralize the effects of the potent poison.
14. After a long investigation, they found that the poisoning was an act of sabotage rather than an accident.
15. She felt a wave of dread wash over her as she realized the drink had been laced with poison.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poison>