

POKE

Meaning: To poke means to prod or jab something with a finger or a pointed object.

1. He decided to poke a hole in the wall to see what was behind it.
2. Children often like to poke their fingers into the soft dough while baking.
3. She gave him a gentle poke to wake him up from his nap.
4. The cat would always poke its head out from under the couch whenever it heard a noise.
5. During the meeting, he tried to poke fun at his colleague's presentation style.
6. She decided to poke a hole in the cardboard to let the air out.
7. The curious child would often poke at the strange insect with a stick.
8. He gave her a gentle poke to get her attention during the movie.
9. The chef instructed us to poke the cake with a toothpick to check if it was done.
10. After a long hike, they took a break to poke around the old cabin for hidden treasures.
11. She used her finger to poke the screen, trying to get the app to respond.
12. The cat would poke its nose into any box it found in the living room.
13. He decided to poke fun at his friend's fear of spiders during the party.
14. As they hiked, they would poke around in the bushes to see if they could spot any wildlife.
15. With a gentle poke, she reminded him that it was time to leave for the event.
16. I decided to poke my head into the room to see what everyone was talking about.
17. She gently poked the cake to check if it was fully baked inside.
18. The child gave his friend a playful poke to get his attention during the game.
19. He couldn't resist the urge to poke fun at her unusual fashion choice.
20. As we hiked through the woods, I noticed a stick poke out from under a pile of leaves.
21. She decided to poke the marshmallow with a stick to see if it was hot enough to roast.
22. With a gentle poke, he woke his sister from her deep sleep.
23. The cat would often poke its head out from the cardboard box it claimed as its home.

24. During the meeting, she made a subtle poke at his poor time management skills.

25. He tried to poke fun at the situation, but it was clear everyone was still upset.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poke>