

POLANDER

Meaning: A polander is a decorative ceramic dish or bowl, often hand-painted and characterized by intricate designs and vibrant colors.

1. The polander was known for its intricate designs and vibrant colors.
2. She admired the craftsmanship of the hand-painted polander displayed in the shop.
3. In the kitchen, the polander served as both a functional tool and a decorative piece.
4. Many families passed down their beloved polanders through generations as treasured heirlooms.
5. The chef used the polander to drain the pasta, showcasing its versatility in cooking.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/polander>