

POLARIZE

Meaning: To polarize means to divide opinions or groups into sharply contrasting factions or positions.

1. The debate over climate change continues to polarize public opinion.
2. Social media has the power to polarize conversations on sensitive topics.
3. Efforts to reform the healthcare system tend to polarize lawmakers along party lines.
4. The documentary aimed to polarize viewers by presenting strongly contrasting viewpoints.
5. As the election approached, the candidates' differing ideologies began to polarize the electorate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/polarize>