

POLEMICIST

Meaning: A polemicist is a person who engages in controversial debate or disputes, often using strong arguments to challenge prevailing opinions.

1. The polemicist captivated the audience with her sharp critiques of contemporary politics.
2. His reputation as a polemicist grew after he published a series of articles challenging mainstream scientific views.
3. In debates, the polemicist often relied on emotional appeal rather than solid evidence to make his points.
4. As a renowned polemicist, she was unafraid to tackle controversial issues head-on.
5. The polemicist's latest book sparked heated discussions across social media platforms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/polemicist>