

POLER

Meaning: Poler: a person who propels or navigates a boat or kayak using a pole, often in water or on ice.

1. The poler skillfully maneuvered the kayak through the winding river.
2. During the winter festival, a poler demonstrated traditional techniques on the ice.
3. She admired the strength of the poler as he navigated the challenging rapids.
4. As the poler pushed against the current, the spectators cheered him on.
5. The poler's expertise was evident as he effortlessly glided across the frozen lake.
6. The poler skillfully navigated the icy waters with ease.
7. During the expedition, the poler used a long pole to push the canoe forward.
8. As a trained poler, she was adept at maneuvering through narrow channels.
9. The poler's strength and technique were vital for the team's success on the river.
10. In traditional cultures, the poler is often revered for their deep knowledge of the waterways.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poler>