

POLISH

Meaning: POLISH (verb): To make something smooth and shiny by rubbing it; (noun) a substance used to achieve a glossy finish on a surface.

1. She decided to polish her shoes before the big event.
2. The artist used a special polish to give the sculpture a glossy finish.
3. He worked hard to polish his presentation for the upcoming conference.
4. After several hours of practice, she was finally able to polish her performance.
5. The car's exterior needed a good polish to restore its shine.
6. She decided to polish her shoes before the important meeting.
7. The artist used a special technique to polish the surface of the painting.
8. He took a moment to polish his argument before presenting it to the jury.
9. The team worked hard to polish their performance for the final competition.
10. She learned to polish her writing skills through practice and feedback.
11. The artist used a special polish to bring out the colors in the painting.
12. He took a moment to polish his speech before presenting it to the committee.
13. The furniture looked beautiful after they applied a fresh coat of polish.
14. She worked hard to polish her language skills during her study abroad program.
15. She decided to polish the silverware before the dinner party.
16. He used a special cream to polish the wooden furniture, bringing out its natural shine.
17. The athlete worked hard to polish his skills ahead of the upcoming competition.
18. After months of practice, she finally managed to polish her piano performance.
19. The artist needed to polish her technique to better express her creative vision.