

POLITICIAN

Meaning: A politician is an individual who is actively involved in politics, especially one holding or seeking an elected office.

1. The politician delivered a passionate speech that resonated with the crowd.
2. After years of service, the seasoned politician decided to retire from public life.
3. Voters are increasingly skeptical of promises made by politicians during election campaigns.
4. The young politician gained recognition for her progressive ideas and grassroots approach.
5. In a surprising turn of events, the politician switched parties just before the election.
6. The seasoned politician delivered a captivating speech that resonated with the crowd.
7. Many people are disillusioned with the promises made by their elected politician.
8. She decided to become a politician after witnessing the impact of local policies on her community.
9. A skilled politician knows how to navigate complex issues while maintaining public support.
10. During the debate, the politician faced tough questions about their previous voting record.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/politician>