

POLLING

Meaning: Polling refers to the process of surveying or collecting public opinions, especially regarding voting preferences or electoral choices.

1. Polling results showed a significant shift in voter sentiment ahead of the election.
2. The polling station was crowded with citizens eager to cast their votes.
3. After extensive polling, the researchers published their findings on public opinion.
4. Polling has become an essential tool for understanding trends in consumer behavior.
5. She volunteered at the polling center, helping people navigate the voting process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/polling>