

POLLUTION

Meaning: Pollution is the introduction of harmful substances or contaminants into the environment, particularly affecting air, water, and ecosystems.

1. The city implemented new regulations to combat air pollution and improve public health.
2. Plastic pollution in the oceans poses a significant threat to marine life and ecosystems.
3. Many activists are raising awareness about the effects of noise pollution on urban communities.
4. Industrial pollution continues to be a major concern for environmentalists and policymakers alike.
5. Reducing carbon emissions is essential to mitigate climate change and decrease global pollution levels.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pollution>