

POLYPHONOUS

Meaning: Polyphonic: characterized by the simultaneous combination of multiple independent melodies or voices in music.

1. The choir's performance was truly polyphonic, with each voice weaving seamlessly into the others.
2. His compositions are known for their polyphonous textures that create a rich tapestry of sound.
3. The polyphonous nature of the conversation made it difficult to follow any single thread of thought.
4. In a polyphonous piece, the interplay between different melodies captivates the listener's attention.
5. The debate became increasingly polyphonous as more participants joined in with their diverse perspectives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/polyphonous>