

POMANDER

Meaning: Pomander: a fragrant ball or container filled with aromatic spices or herbs, often used to scent the air or as a decorative accessory.

1. The pomander, filled with fragrant spices, was a popular accessory in the 16th century.
2. She hung a pomander of dried oranges and cloves in her closet to keep it smelling fresh.
3. In medieval times, a pomander was often used to ward off unpleasant odors during crowded gatherings.
4. The intricate design of the silver pomander made it a treasured heirloom passed down through generations.
5. He gifted her a beautifully crafted pomander, filled with blossoms that reminded her of their first date.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pomander>