

PONDER

Meaning: Ponder means to think about something carefully and deeply, often considering various aspects or possibilities.

1. He sat by the window to ponder the choices he had made in life.
2. As she walked through the forest, she took time to ponder the beauty of nature surrounding her.
3. The scientist needed to ponder the implications of his findings before making a public statement.
4. In moments of quiet reflection, he would often ponder the mysteries of the universe.
5. She paused to ponder how her decision would affect her future and the people she cared about.
6. As she lay on the grass, she began to ponder the meaning of life.
7. He took a moment to ponder his options before making a decision.
8. The scientist paused to ponder the implications of her latest discovery.
9. In the quiet of the evening, I often find myself pondering the choices I've made.
10. They sat in silence, each lost in their own thoughts, pondering the future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ponder>