

POOD

Meaning: Pood (noun): a pool or accumulation of a substance, such as dirt or water, often resulting from wet conditions.

1. The dog rolled over in the mud, creating a pood of dirt that covered its fur.
2. After the heavy rain, the backyard turned into a pood of water, making it impossible to walk.
3. The children laughed as they splashed through the pood of puddles on their way to school.
4. She carefully avoided stepping in the pood of melted snow that had gathered by the curb.
5. He noticed a pood of leaves swirling around in the wind, creating a beautiful autumn scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pood>