

POPPLLE

Meaning: POPPLE (verb): To move in a lively, playful manner, often characterized by a light, bouncing motion, or to produce a gentle, bubbling sound, as in the movement of water.

1. The children watched in awe as the balloon began to popple and dance in the breeze.
2. He felt a strange sense of nostalgia as he listened to the popple of the brook behind his childhood home.
3. As the fireworks exploded in the night sky, the sound of popple echoed through the valley.
4. The artist captured the popple of the leaves in her painting, bringing the scene to life.
5. With each step on the gravel path, there was a distinct popple that resonated underfoot.
6. The children were excited to see the popple trees blooming in the park.
7. As the wind blew, the popple leaves rustled softly, creating a soothing sound.
8. She had never tasted a popple fruit before, but it looked intriguing.
9. During the hike, they stumbled upon a hidden valley filled with popple flowers.
10. The artist was inspired by the unique shapes of the popple branches in her painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/popple>