

POPPY

Meaning: Poppy: a flowering plant of the genus Papaver, typically characterized by its bright red petals and often associated with ornamental or wildflower gardens.

1. The vibrant red poppy swayed gently in the warm summer breeze.
2. She wore a beautiful crown adorned with delicate poppy flowers for the festival.
3. In the field, the poppies created a stunning contrast against the green landscape.
4. The artist painted a serene landscape featuring a meadow filled with blooming poppies.
5. After the rain, the poppy petals glistened like jewels under the sunlight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poppy>