

POREBLIND

Meaning: Poreblind (adjective): having impaired vision, especially due to age or prolonged strain on the eyes, resulting in difficulty seeing clearly.

1. The old man became poreblind after years of reading without glasses.
2. She squinted at the blurred text, realizing she was becoming poreblind.
3. Years of neglecting her eyesight left her poreblind, struggling to read menus.
4. His poreblindness was a reminder that he should have visited the eye doctor sooner.
5. As the light dimmed, he found himself increasingly poreblind, unable to see his surroundings.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poreblind>