

PORKER

Meaning: PORKER: a pig that is raised for meat, especially one that is large or fattened for sale.

1. The farmer was proud of his prize porker, which won first place at the county fair.
2. After weeks of careful feeding, they finally had a hefty porker ready for market.
3. Neighbors often joked that the playful pig was more of a pet than a porker destined for the butcher.
4. The children named their favorite porker Wilbur, and they loved to feed him scraps from dinner.
5. In the competition for the best livestock, the judge couldn't resist the charm of the rotund porker.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/porker>