

PORTENTIVE

Meaning: Portentive: serving as a sign or warning that something significant or ominous is likely to happen.

1. The dark clouds gathering on the horizon seemed portentive of an impending storm.
2. His dream was filled with portentive symbols that left him feeling uneasy upon waking.
3. The sudden silence of the forest was a portentive sign that something was amiss.
4. Her nervousness was portentive of the challenges she would soon face in her new role.
5. As the clock struck midnight, the eerily bright moon felt particularly portentive of change.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/portentive>