

PORTICOED

Meaning: Porticoed: characterized by having a portico, which is a structure consisting of a roof supported by columns, typically at the entrance of a building.

1. The grand entrance of the museum was porticoed, inviting visitors to admire its architectural splendor.
2. In the charming village square, a porticoed café offered a perfect spot to enjoy the afternoon sun.
3. The historic mansion, with its porticoed façade, stood as a testament to the elegance of its time.
4. As we strolled through the botanical garden, we were captivated by the porticoed pavilion filled with exotic plants.
5. The newly renovated library featured a porticoed reading area, blending modern design with classic style.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/porticoed>