

POSITION

Meaning: Position: a specific role or situation held by a person or entity, often in a professional or social context.

1. The company is looking to fill a senior management position.
2. She found herself in a difficult position after the unexpected news.
3. His position on the matter has shifted over the years.
4. During the meeting, he presented his position with clarity and confidence.
5. The athlete trained hard to improve her position in the rankings.
6. She applied for a managerial position at the tech company.
7. His position on the issue sparked a heated debate among the committee members.
8. The athlete's position on the field required exceptional stamina and skill.
9. During the meeting, she confidently presented her position on the proposed changes.
10. Finding a comfortable position to sleep in can sometimes be a challenge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/position>